

CCM's Path to Housing Stability

How You Can Make a Difference...

Volunteer Opportunities:

Lorie Williams, Volunteer Coordinator
lwilliams@cooperativeministry.com
704-490-4245

Program Requirements & Current Program Needs:

Amaha Sheferaw, Program Manager
asheferaw@cooperativeministry.com
704-706-9049

Financial Contributions:

Online: www.cooperativeministry.com
Mail: Cooperative Christian Ministry
PO Box 1717
Concord, NC 28026-1717

Access to More Information

Phone: 704-786-4709

Email: info@cooperativeministry.com

www.cooperativeministry.com

CCM's Path to Achieving Housing Stability

Providing a way for families who are experiencing homelessness or a housing crisis to regain stability and re-establish independence in their lives

Serving families in Cabarrus and southern Rowan Counties

www.cooperativeministry.com

My Father's House (MFH)

Participation Criteria

Single females, single mothers and two-parent families

- 01) Employable or potential for increased income
- 02) Physically & psychologically able to live independently
- 03) Substance free (able to pass a drug test)
- 04) Satisfies background check
- 05) Satisfying personal and program responsibilities*

Program Responsibilities*

- Consistently follow policies & procedures
- Desire to learn & make changes
- Participate in case management
- Establish and pursue goals
- Follow through on referrals

Financial Obligation: $0

Indicators of Progress

- Housing—ready to move to temporary or transitional housing
- Employment—employed part-time
- Financial—have a financial plan
- Transportation—have developed solutions for critical transportation
- Child care/school—regular attendance & established MV services
- Health—access to medical care and actively treating health issues
- Family—demonstrate improved parenting skills
- Community—accessing community resources

Mothers & Children (MaC)

Participation Criteria

Single mothers with adolescent children

Meets all MFH criteria plus:

- 01) Employed
- 02) Ability to pay personal obligations
- 03) Willingness to implement a financial plan & to review financial status with case manager
- 04) Accessing appropriate community resources
- 05) Positive parenting—bonding with children, growth and age appropriate behaviors, mature relationship
- 06) Willingness to satisfy personal and program responsibilities*

Financial Obligation: $50/wk=$200/month

Indicators of Progress

- Housing—has secured next level housing or housing plan for CCM's Teaching Housing program
- Employment—stable with income to pay rent & utilities
- Financial—able to pay basic expenses & improved debt/income ratio
- Transportation—reliable transportation or a transportation plan
- Child care/school—MV services in place, participating in tutoring, excellent attendance, improved performance
- Health—stable, monitored, healthy diet & exercise. Established access to medical care for self/children
- Family—stable, participating in school & community activities
- Community—embracing community

Teaching Housing (TH)

Participation Criteria

Single Parent and two-parent households, single adults

Meets all MFH & MaC criteria plus:

- 01) Stable/permanent employment with deposit saved
- 02) Expendable income—ability to pay increased rent responsibility, manage unexpected expenses, ability to pay off debt and save for the future
- 03) Ability to get utilities in their name
- 04) Identified housing plan
- 05) Reliable transportation plan
- 06) Demonstrated independent positive choices
- 07) Increased community involvement
- 08) Willingness to satisfy personal and program responsibilities*

Financial Obligation: Min $200/month + utilities

Indicators of Progress

- Housing—has secured next level stable housing
- Employment—stable with resume
- Financial—has manageable household budget and achievable financial plan
- Transportation—has reliable transportation & a backup plan
- Child care/school—established, stable, extracurricular activities
- Health—primary care relationship in place & healthy choices
- Family—participative, supportive, reaching out
- Community—giving back